Define Problem Statements (Customer Problem Statement Template):

Once a problem statement or statement about customer's pain of others. The Customer Problem Statement template helps you focus on the specific issue your target audience is facing. A well-crafted problem statement is the first step toward creating a solution that your customers, value. It clear defines the deep-rooted pain point, you'll be able to create solutions that your customers, value and rely on. Below is an example structure you can follow.

Example:

Problem ID/Item No.	User (Customer)	Facing this	Root	Reason	What needs to be Solved
P-1	Students, Readers and Book Buyers	Difficulty in finding and purchasing books	No centralized online platform for books	Limited options in local stores, time & effort consumed	Create a complete online bookstore with search, cart, buy and order management
